

Embrace Technology: It's Here to Stay

7th Online International Conference

June 22-23, 2023

8th Online International Conference

December, 2023 (actual dates to be confirmed)

About the conference:

Get ready for LEO's 7th International Virtual Conference, one of the most highly acclaimed events in the language industry. With attendees from around the globe, including hospital and court administrators, interpreters, translators, and language service companies, this biannual conference is a must-attend for anyone involved in the field. As part of our commitment to giving back to the industry, a portion of the proceeds from the conference is donated to Translators without Borders.

This year's theme is "Embrace Technology: It's Here to Stay," and will explore the impact of technology on the future of the language industry. Attendees will hear from high-profile experts on topics such as the use of artificial intelligence and machine learning in translation and interpretation, strategies for staying current and competitive in a rapidly-evolving technological landscape, and the use of technology to improve communication and collaboration between T&I professionals.

In addition to learning from industry experts and networking with peers, attendees will also have the opportunity to earn CEUs. Sponsors can take advantage of the event's popularity by participating in raffles and contributing prizes to elevate their presence. About LEO:

Linguist Education Online \(LEO\) is a leading provider of interpreter and translator training and testing for healthcare, legal, educational interpreters and translators, from preparation to state certification exams to continuing education units and performance tests. In addition to individual linguists, LEO collaborates with state courts, healthcare organizations and schools to provide quality training and testing to their bilingual employees. We also work with Language Service Companies testing their applicants and helping them to maintain quality assurance for their clients. As we continue to grow, we are determined to ensure that the standards of professional language services and language access are consistently upheld by our students and customers.
